Burning Rock Announces Plan to Pursue An Alternative Listing

GUANGZHOU, China, June 21, 2022 — Burning Rock Biotech Limited (NASDAQ: BNR, the “Company” or “Burning Rock”), a company focused on the application of next generation sequencing (NGS) technology in the field of precision oncology, today announced that the Board of Directors of the Company (the “Board”) approved a motion to pursue an alternative listing of the Company’s Class A ordinary shares on an internationally recognized stock exchange. The alternative listing is expected to offer fungibility with the company’s American depositary shares (“ADSs”) that are currently listed on Nasdaq, in order to ensure continued and seamless trading for shareholders amid an evolving market and regulatory environment. The Board also authorized the Company’s senior management to engage relevant professional parties, proceed with the relevant preparatory work and undertake the necessary procedures with respect to the alternative listing.

The Company will make further announcements to disclose any material updates and progress with respect to its alternative listing in accordance with applicable laws and regulations as and when appropriate. In the meantime, the Company will keep focused on driving its sustainable business development as a Nasdaq-listed company through the development of cutting-edge cancer diagnostic solutions to maximize shareholder value.

This press release does not, and is not intended to, constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to purchase any of the Company’s securities in the United States or elsewhere. It does not, and is not intended to, constitute an offer, solicitation or sale of any securities in any jurisdiction in which such an offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful. Any offers, solicitations or offers to buy, or any sales of securities will be made in accordance with the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, as well as other applicable laws and regulations.

About Burning Rock
